The member code of conduct broadly sets out the standards of behaviour expected from each Bristol u3a member.

Scope

Relevant to all Bristol u3a members.

Code of Conduct *Members are expected to treat each other with dignity and respect at all times, and should always be welcoming of both new and existing members

*Bristol champions inclusivity, and all members should strive to ensure that no members suffer disadvantage or less favourable treatment on the basis of race, sexuality, gender, disability, religion, age, or belief, or for any other discriminatory reason

*Members are expected to reflect the current organisational policy of Bristol u3a and abide by our procedures and practices

*Members are expected to use Bristol u3a's resources responsibly and only to further our charitable objects

*Members must avoid doing anything that could bring Bristol u3a into disrepute or expose it to undue risk.
